BIO AND PERFORMANCE RECORD:

Equinox SF is a charming modern-typed stallion. He is a perfect match for old fashioned or heavier mares needing the injection of class to produce the exquisite sporthorse foal bred today in EU.

Equinox comes from a long line of performance producing bloodlines. His sire, Torino, a brilliant competitor with world-class potential and distinguished breeding record is a son of Heartbreaker the ambassador of the Belgian sporthorse breed. Quin's dam's sire, Branco, a proven broodmare sire with three approved BWP/NAD sons continues the G Ramiro Z dynasty. Ramiro's performance as a sporthorse and breeding sire earned him the titles 'Stallion of the Century' and "King of Sires." The Thoroughbred grand dam sire delivers 'Quin's' offspring the coveted infusion of "blood" in the 3rd generation so en vogue in European sport horse breeding.

This extremely typey Torino son wowed the Belgian judges with his jumping prowess which earned him 87% in the free jumping / under saddle jumping portion of his BWP approval. His reactive and ultra-careful technique coupled with bravery and scope proves "Quin" is following easily down the footpath of his illustrious pedigree. He will be successful navigating both large and technical tracks seen today at the world's most prestigious show jumping venues. Quin's 3 exceptional, lofty gaits will allow him to excel in the dressage arena. His quiet, gentlemen-like nature combined with his stylish jumping technique and his overall beauty will allow him to shine in the hunter arena. This kind-hearted young stallion is a delight to have in the barn, eager to please and easy to train.

Showed at 1st and 2nd level dressage in 2009 with scores of 67%.

Showing in 2nd and 3rd level dressage in 2010.
