BIO AND PERFORMANCE RECORD:

Grand Slam B is currently being ridden by Ramiro Quintana and competing in Wellington for the 2012 WEG season.

Couleur Rubin is one of the best advertisements for Seifert performance breeding and one of four licensed sons out of St.Pr./El.St. Grannuschka that are all highly successful in sport. Couleur Rubin won the Championships of Basel/SUI last season and placed second in the Masters League Final of Frankfurt, third in the Grand Prix of Neumünster as well as fifth in the Show Jumping World Cup of Leipzig under his Olympic Game multi-champion rider, Ludger Beerbaum.

Couleur Rubin is also the sire of Castle Forbes Cosma who is successful in Grand Prix under his Irish rider, Jessica Kürten. Eight of his sons have been licensed, including Couleto, also bred by Harli Seifert, who wins international competitions under Simon Delestre/FRA, and Copasetic ridden by Thomas Kleis.

Grand Slam's Dam, is by Concorde who is by the famous stallion Voltaire. His dam, the 'prestatie' mare Flyer, is by the legendary Marco Polo. Flyer has produced at least 6 international jumpers. In 2001, Concorde was the youngest stallion ever to be awarded "preferent". In 2002, he was the number one producer of show jumpers by money won in the US and his sire, Voltaire was named the number one hunter producer in the US. In 2003 Concorde was named Horse of the Year in Holland and was the leading jumping sire in the US. He has produced over 100 offspring competing nationally and internationally at 1.40-1.60.

Grand Slam B, stamped with his flashy markings from his sire, has shown tremendous athletic ability and talent in his young career. His free jumping test wowed the judge and showed huge potential. He is very smart and learns quickly as well as possesses a lovely temperament.
