BIO AND PERFORMANCE RECORD:

Obourg, one of the best show jumpers of the Belgian young horse circuit is by Richebourg, who along with his sire Bayard d'Elle (ISO 167) are from the best female lines in France. In his pedigree are the French to inheritors like Double Espoir, Grand Vaneur and Uriel. Richebourg's dam is one of the best breeding mares in history, producing seven Olympic Champions. She bred the approved stallions Shogun, Jus de Pommes, Quintus, Richebourg and Tresor d'Opaline.

Since his importation to the US, Obourg has placed in numerous Grand Prix with Olympian Lisa Jacquin, including a third in the $25,000 WEF Challenge Cup Series in 2007. Also, in 2007, Obourg placed 2nd in the Tournament of Champions in Canada. He has consistently continued to place in National Level Grand Prix and in the open jumper divisions in the United States.

His offspring continue to excel in Europe.
